

Current Funding Lines of the Klaus Tschira Foundation in the Field of Research

Funding Line Innovative Research

The goal of this funding line is to enable significant advances in the natural sciences, mathematics, and computer science through unconventional ideas in basic research.

- Target groups: Researchers in the fields of natural sciences, mathematics, and computer science at all career stages (starting from postdoc level), affiliated with a university or research institution.
- Funding volume: Projects with a funding volume of €100,000–€500,000
- Deadlines: Application deadline: September 16, 2025
Earliest project start: June 2026
- Further information about the funding line and application process:
<https://klaus-tschira-stiftung.de/foerderungen/innovative-forschung/>

Funding Line Sandpit Workshop at the KTS Studio in Heidelberg

For interdisciplinary groups from the natural sciences, mathematics, and computer science who want to develop creative, extraordinary, and forward-looking research projects in an interactive workshop format across career stages.

- Target groups: Researchers in the fields of natural sciences, mathematics, and computer science at all career stages, affiliated with a university or research institution.
- For groups of approx. 10 to 25 participants
- Costs covered by KTS: Travel, accommodation, catering
- Deadlines: Application deadline: November 27, 2025
Funding period: April to September 2026
- Further information about the funding line and application process:
<https://klaus-tschira-stiftung.de/foerderungen/sandpit-workshops/>

Contact:

Dr. Anke Lischeid

Program Manager Research

Klaus Tschira Stiftung gGmbH

Schloss-Wolfsbrunnenweg 33

69118 Heidelberg

Phone: +49 [6221] - 533-131

Email: anke.lischeid@klaus-tschira-stiftung.de

Online: www.klaus-tschira-stiftung.de